

THE DOOR IS NARROW

A Vivid Dream

Discern • Separate • Enter

“Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it.”

—Matthew 7:13

In the early morning hours of June 2, 2025, I had an unusually vivid dream. It felt so real that it seemed as though I were actually walking through the events as they unfolded.

The dream took place in a city somewhere on this earth. Everything around me was dark, dirty, and oppressive—but somewhere ahead of me was light.

THE DREAM

I found myself walking through the streets of a city. I was looking for a small portable table and perhaps a chair where I could sit and rest.

Everything around me was very dark. The city seemed to be covered with soot or some kind of black, oily substance. Even the people I encountered appeared to be covered in it.

I came upon a small group of people who seemed to be camped out or temporarily living there. I noticed a little folding table with a cat tied to it. I petted the cat, took the table with me, and continued looking for a chair where I could rest.

But there seemed to be no place of rest.

The surroundings were filthy, and there was nowhere appropriate for people to relieve themselves. What struck me most was that no one seemed disturbed by it anymore. They had become accustomed to the horrific smell and the condition of their surroundings.

There was no outcry. The people were content to remain in their environment.

DARKNESS AND LIGHT

As I continued walking, I saw a family member among the people. She did not recognize me. She appeared to be deeply affected by drugs. It was heartbreaking to see her in that condition, but I continued moving. The darkness seemed endless.

Then I saw a bright light ahead of me.

I was immediately drawn toward it.

The light was coming from a warehouse-type building. As I approached, I saw that the entrance was very narrow. I walked up to the narrow front door and had to squeeze through it.

At the same time, an unusually narrow truck was trying to come out through the doorway. I quickly moved past it and entered the building.

Inside, I discovered that it was some type of LEGO distribution center.

I watched as the narrow truck began to compact itself, almost like a transformer. Long crates filled with small LEGO trucks and other toy trucks folded and compressed together until everything fit onto one long semi-truck.

It was fascinating to watch.

Then I woke up.

THE NARROW DOOR

When I awoke, several things about the dream remained especially vivid: the overwhelming darkness, the people who had become comfortable living in it, the brilliant light ahead, and the narrow door through which I had to pass.

The contrast between darkness and light was unmistakable.

The people had become so accustomed to their surroundings that what should have been disturbing no longer seemed to disturb them. They were living in darkness, yet there was no outcry and seemingly no desire to leave.

But the light was there.

And there was a way out of the darkness and into the light.

The door was narrow.

This immediately brings to mind the words of Yeshua (Jesus):

“Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction... Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it.”

—Matthew 7:13–14, NKJV

DO NOT BECOME ACCUSTOMED TO THE DARKNESS

What happens when darkness becomes so familiar that it no longer troubles us?

The people in the dream appeared to have adapted to their surroundings. The filth, the perpetual darkness, and the horrific smell had become normal to them. There was no outcry.

As followers of Yeshua Messiah, we must be careful that we never become so accustomed to the darkness around us that we stop recognizing it for what it is.

We are called to walk in the Light.

The Light of the World

Yeshua spoke to them again, saying, “I am the light of the world. The one who follows Me will no longer walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.”

—John 8:12, TLV

THE LIGHT WAS AHEAD

Yet the dream did not end in darkness.

Ahead of me was a bright light, and I was drawn toward it. Between the darkness and the light stood a narrow entrance—a doorway I had to pass through.

Yeshua said:

“I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved...”
—John 10:9, NKJV

THE DOOR IS NARROW

Beloved, darkness may surround us, and many may become comfortable living within it—but we do not have to remain there.

There is Light ahead.

There is a Door.

And Yeshua Himself calls us to enter.

The narrow way may require us to leave behind what has become familiar. It requires discernment, separation from darkness, and a willingness to follow Him even when the way is not the way of the crowd.

Do not become comfortable in the darkness. Keep your eyes upon the Light. Enter through the narrow door.

Discern • Separate • Enter
